

Richard A. Brown

CS&B

COSMICH SIMMONS
& BROWN, PLLC

Attorneys & Counselors at Law

Richard A. Brown is a partner at Cosmich Simmons & Brown and is a seasoned litigator with more than 15 years of litigation experience. Richard's practice is national and primarily focused on toxic tort litigation, including complex mass tort. In this capacity, he has represented a wide array of clients ranging from large Fortune 100 companies to small businesses in state and federal courts and has experience trying cases to verdict. Richard's notable engagements including serving as national trial and discovery counsel for several manufacturers and premises owners.

Richard's practice spans all phases of the litigation lifecycle, from inception through discovery and ultimately to trial. He has taken and defended hundreds of fact and expert witness depositions, briefed and argued complex motions, and tried cases in a variety of dispute forums and courts across the country. He is known for his practical and business minded approach to the law, for being a fierce negotiator, and for having driven many favorable and prominent settlements on behalf of his clients.

Richard received his law degree from Mississippi College School of Law; a Master of Business Administration from Loyola University (International Business concentration); and a Business Arts degree from Louisiana Tech University (Political Science Major). He is a Martindale-Hubbell "AV" rated attorney – a peer rating for the highest level of professional competence and ethics. Richard is admitted to practice in Mississippi, District of Columbia, Texas, Illinois, Missouri and Ohio.